Graduate Course Descriptions

Applied Theology

AT 550 Church Law for Parish Ministers

2 cr

A survey of the role and nature of law in the Church, including principles of law and interpretation; a brief overview of the historical foundations of the Church's legal system. Primary focus will be given to Books Two, Four, and Five of the 1983 Code of Canon Law and their relationship to the ecclesiology of Vatican II and applications to parish ministry.

AT 570 Homiletics I

2 cr

Study and discussion of the theology of Christian communication with the practical emphasis on individual ministerial development of preaching. Course incorporates public speaking skills and homiletic composition and frequent student preaching with the use of videotaping and critical evaluation. (M.Div. candidates only)

AT 660 Pastoral Counseling

2 cr

A study and practice of the elements of the counseling relationship including confidentiality, listening skills, and counselor-client agreement. Special attention is paid to the distinction between pastoral counseling and spiritual direction and the process of assessment and referral.

AT 746 Sacrament of Marriage and Law

3 cr

This course provides an historical study of the development of the Sacrament of Marriage in the Catholic theological tradition from biblical times until today, and an examination of marriage law with attention to the canonical and pastoral considerations involved in the preparation for marriage, the annulment and dissolution of marriage, and the ecclesial procedures used in issuing decrees of nullity. Included will be contemporary and ecumenical issues. (Prerequisites: MNS 300, AT 780, or AT 550)

AT 775 Homiletics II

3 cr

An advanced course in homiletics concentrating on the refinement of preaching the Lectionary, integrating the readings and witnessing one's personal faith experience. It incorporates the use of art and culture, contemporary social teachings, and personal story telling, along with actual delivery of homilies with critical group evaluation. (Prerequisite: AT 570) (M.Div. candidates only)

AT 780 Introduction to Canon Law

2 cr

Students will be introduced to an examination of the nature of canon law and a broad overview of its content; emphasis will be placed on the nature, purpose, and history of the law in the Church and on changes in the law brought about by Vatican II. Special attention will be given to Book Two, "The People of God," of the 1983 Code of Canon Law and principles of interpretation.

AT 881 Sacramental Law

3 cr

This course will be an extensive study of the canons regarding the Sacraments of Initiation, Sacraments of Healing, and Orders. There will be a special emphasis on Book Four of the Code of Canon Law. (Prerequisite: AT 780 or MNS 300 or PM 550))

AT 890 Parish Leadership and Administration

3 cr

This course will provide foundational principles in business administration and leadership as applied to parochial ministry. The course will focus upon management of human resources, stewardship, and basic accounting skills. Students will be expected to understand, articulate, and be able to apply leadership principles as well as the spiritual foundations for stewardship and administration. The course will integrate both theoretical and practical elements of leadership. (M.Div. candidates only)

Education

EDU 3120 Educational Psychology

4 cr.

Focus on the learning process: role of the teacher in learning; efficiency of learning as it is affected by the developmental processes; psychological principles that are central to the learning process and their relationship to the teaching situation; variables in learning; and evaluation of the outcomes of learning. Application of learning theory and multicultural concepts in a field-based context. Includes a one hour field experience (30 clock hours). This course is offered through Madonna University.

EDU 4400 Behavior Management in the Classroom

2 cr.

Focus on understanding the role of the teacher in facilitating change in the classroom; the nature of and factors affecting student behavior; the investigation and evaluation of classroom management models; and strategies for handling disruptive student behavior, with emphasis on prevention of classroom problems. Application of classroom management strategies, anti-bullying, and classroom/student interventions in actual problem situations. This course is offered through Madonna University. (Prerequisite: EDU 3120)

EDU 4590 Theory and Techniques of Instruction

4 cr.

This course is offered through Madonna University. (Prerequisites: EDU 3120, EDU 4400)

Evangelization and Catechises

EV 500 Evangelization and Catechesis

2 cr

An examination of principles and dynamics of catechetical theory and practice articulated in specific Church documents, General Directory for Catechesis, and National Directory for Catechesis. Content is focused on the Church's mission to nurture faith and conversion from among God's people and the means utilized by the Church over the centuries: composition of catechetical session based on principles of adult learning.

EV 530 Conversion and Reconciliation

2 cr

A study of the personal and social realities of evil, sin, guilt, sickness, and alienation in light of the restoration of the created order in Jesus Christ. Emphasis will be placed on Christian reconciliation and the dynamics of conversion as a lifelong process and sacramental event. The historical, theological, and pastoral aspects of the sacraments of Penance and Anointing will be examined.

EV 540 Leadership in Catholic Identity

3 cr

This course has a twofold focus: 1) the doctrinal foundation of Catholicism, especially the nature and mission of Catholic education (its history and philosophy) as part of the larger nature and mission of the Church, and 2) the content and use of multiple documents and resources for leadership in Catholic identity. (This course is intended for students in Madonna University's Catholic School Leadership Program)

EV 545 Leadership in Christian Development

2 cr

This course explores the responsibilities of leadership in nurturance of spiritual development, particularly moral and faith development. It includes the role of the leader in facilitating conversion, discipleship and prayer as well as practices of various prayer forms and theological reflection. Attention is given to the challenges of cultural influence in the developmental process. (This course is intended for students in Madonna University's Catholic School Leadership Program)

EV 640 Catechetical Leadership

2 cr

This course builds on the foundation of the four dimensions of catechesis: message, community, worship (including liturgy and sacraments), and service and their relationship to the responsibilities of the catechetical leader. It also examines the major catechetical documents, current forms, and methods. (This course is intended for students in Madonna University's Catholic School Leadership Program; M.A.P.S. students may register for this class at the discretion of the instructor)

EV 645 Formation of Christian Community

2 cr

This course examines characteristics of leadership necessary for developing Christian community. It also examines the Christian community as a social reality, rooted in Bible and tradition, and explores the dynamics and challenges of becoming and being a Christian community within a culturally diverse context. Particular attention is given to studies on the Church of Detroit throughout the course.

EV 680 Pastoral Care Across the Cultures

2 cr

An examination of psycho-social and religio-cultural understandings of major ethnic groups in the United States Catholic Church and their spiritualties and rituals. Students will explore ways to balance unity and diversity within a parish community in order to bring about an exchange of spiritual gifts by promoting recognition of other cultures, respect for cultural differences, and healthy integration among them.

EV 720 Youth Ministry

2 cr

An analysis of the vision and fundamental components of youth ministry derived from theology, developmental theory, and sociology; special attention given to the planning, implementation, and evaluation of youth ministry programs and to the recruitment of youth and adult leaders.

EV 889D-899D

Independent Study in Evangelization and Catechesis

3 cr

EV 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Evangelization and Catechesis

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in evangelization and catechesis.

Field Education

These courses are graded Pass with High Distinction, Pass with Distinction, Pass, Fail.

FE 690 Introduction to Field Education I: Clinical

1 cr

The introduction prepares students to engage in their clinical field education placement for the first year of theology. Students will become familiar with the dynamic components of field education, goal setting, learning agreements, practical aspects of pastoral ministry, and the evaluation process. The course will include learning how to undertake theological/pastoral reflection in a clinical setting. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 692 Introduction to Field Education II: New Evangelization 1 cr

The introduction prepares students to engage in their New Evangelization field education placement for the second year of theology. Students will be given an overview of the various ministries in which they will be participating, along with instruction as to how evangelization is best practiced in a diversity of pastoral settings. Students will also prepare goals and learning contracts in anticipation of their field education, and be equipped to reflect upon their experiences in a theological/pastoral manner. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 695 Field Education Placement I: Clinical

1 cr

1 cr

Clinical field education placements involve gaining pastoral experience ministering to the sick, the aged, and the dying. Hence, three different locations are utilized: a hospital, a nursing home, and a hospice. On-site professionals will provide supervision. Students will engage in on-going self-appraisal and pastoral/theological reflection based on their field education experience. Students will receive evaluations from their on-site supervisors as well as from the director of pastoral formation. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 698 Field Education Placement II: New Evangelization

New Evangelization field education placements give students practical insight into how the ministry of evangelization is carried out in a variety of pastoral settings. Hence, different locations are utilized, such as: a university chaplaincy, a prison, and a parish. Students will be tasked with both the development and implementation of the various on-site programs. Students will engage in on-going self-appraisal and pastoral/theological reflection based on their field education experience. Students will receive evaluations from their on-site supervisors as well as from the director of pastoral formation. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 720 Parish Internship I

2 cr

At the conclusion of their second year theology, in consultation with their diocesan vocation directors, students will take up residence in a parish as a summer pastoral assignment (from mid-May to mid-August). Students will prepare a learning contract with their pastor and the director of pastoral formation. Students will fully enter into parish life and ministry, in a manner that serves to integrate their earlier field education experience, and further enhances their own vocational discernment. They will also engage in self-appraisal and receive an evaluation from their pastor, along with a select group of parish staff and parishioners, as well as from the director of pastoral formation. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 720C Parish Internship I

2 cr

In consultation with the Vocation Director of the Eparchy, the student will take up weekend residence in a Chaldean parish as a pastoral assignment during the fall and winter semesters of the T2 academic year. The student will prepare a learning contract with his pastor and the SHMS director of pastoral formation. He will enter fully into parish life and ministry, in a manner that serves to deepen his awareness of the nature and scope of parish ministry in general, and of the priesthood in particular, thus further enhancing his vocational discernment. At the conclusion of his assignment, the student will engage in a self-appraisal and participate in an on-site evaluation conducted by the SHMS director of graduate pastoral formation, in conjunction with the pastor and a select group of staff and parishioners. (For Chaldean M.Div. candidates only—in lieu of FE 720).

FE 725 Parish Leadership II

2 cr

At the conclusion of their third year theology, coinciding with the candidate's ordination to the Diaconate, and in consultation with their diocesan vocation directors, students will take up residence in a parish as a summer pastoral assignment (from mid-May to mid-August). Students will prepare a learning contract with their pastors and the director of pastoral formation. During this 2nd internship placement, and in consultation with their pastor/supervisor, students will be asked to take on more of a leadership role as ordained pastoral ministers. Deacons are to give special attention to the following: preaching, celebrating Baptisms, and assisting at weddings. Students will engage in self-appraisal and receive an evaluation from their pastors, along with a select group of parish staff and parishioners, as well as from the director of pastoral formation. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 725 C Parish Leadership II

2 cr

In consultation with the Vocation Director of the Eparchy, the deacon will take up weekend residence in a Chaldean parish as a pastoral assignment during the fall and winter semesters of the T4 academic year. The deacon will prepare a learning contract with his pastor and the SHMS director of pastoral formation. The deacon will be called upon to exercise a leadership role as an ordained pastoral minister in the parish. He will also gain liturgical/sacramental expertise by preaching at Masses, assisting at baptisms and weddings, etc. At the conclusion of his assignment, the deacon will engage in a self-appraisal and receive evaluations from his pastor, a select group of staff and parishioners, and the SHMS director of graduate pastoral formation. (For Chaldean M.Div. candidates only—in lieu of FE 725).

FE 730 Parish Internship Year

4 cr

This parish internship is for one continuous ten month period from mid-August to mid-June and takes the place of FE 720 and FE 725. Students will prepare a learning contract with the pastor-supervisor and director of pastoral formation that states the responsibilities of all parties for the student's internship. Students will participate in a variety of parochial activities, especially liturgical and leadership activities that occur during the internship period. The student will demonstrate a familiarity with all aspects of ministry that the assigned parish affords as well as an ability to reflect critically and theologically on parish ministry. Students will submit a self-appraisal and receive an evaluation from the pastor-supervisor and the director of pastoral formation. (M.Div. candidates only)

FE 889D-899D

IS 505 Theological Research and Writing

1 cr

This course is an introduction to doing theological research and writing which culminates in preparing a research paper for a graduate level course in theology. The course gives particular attention to learning how to read analytically, critically, and "syntopically". The course will also cover the critical evaluation of resources, citation style, appropriate use of resources in expository writing, and the issue of plagiarism. (Co-requisite ST 500 or ST 530)

IS 850 Student Teaching

4 cr.

IS 885 M.A.P.S. Formation I: Introduction to Theological Reflection ½ cr

This course introduces M.A.P.S. students to the theory and practice of theological reflection. Through an examination of literature about the theological reflection process, students learn methods for reflecting on ministerial and related situations through the lens of Catholic Tradition. Students lead group prayer and lectio divina. The class is to be taken during the student's first fall term in the M.A.P.S. program.

IS 886 M.A.P.S. Formation II: Boundary Issues

1/2 Cr

This course continues the systematic use of theological reflection to integrate faith and ministry experiences. Topics relating to maintaining proper boundaries in ministry are covered, including developing self-knowledge, commitment to self-care, maintaining appropriate interpersonal boundaries, developing proper role identification, and professional ethics. Students lead group prayer and lectio divina. The class is to be taken during the student's first winter term in the M.A.P.S. program. (Prerequisite: IS 885)

IS 887 M.A.P.S. Formation III: Leadership and Collaboration ½ cr

This course continues the systematic use of theological reflection to integrate faith and ministry experiences. Topics relating to leadership and collaboration in ministry settings are covered, including serving others through leading as a lay ecclesial minister, collaborating effectively with others, listening skills, and conflict resolution. Students lead group prayer and lectio divina. The class is to be taken during the students second fall term in the M.A.P.S. program. (Prerequisites: IS 885, IS 886)

IS 888 M.A.P.S. Formation IV: Men and Women in the Ministerial Workplace ½ cr

This course continues the systematic use of theological reflection to integrate faith and ministry experiences. Topics relating to collaboration between men and women in ministerial settings are covered, including understanding and appreciating intrinsic differences between the work of men and women and maintaining healthy approaches to work relationships. Students lead group prayer and lectio divina. The class is to be taken during the student's second winter term in the M.A.P.S. program. (Prerequisites: IS 885, IS 886, IS 887)

IS 890 M.Div. Integrating Seminar

2 cr

The seminar seeks to complete the Master of Divinity outcome of "demonstrating personal integration of intellectual, pastoral, and spiritual formation". After each student researches and reflects critically upon an issue or problem of pastoral and theological significance, he will give a presentation and lead a discussion on the chosen issue or problem. (M.Div. candidates only)

IS 891 M.A.P.S. Supervised Ministry

2 cr

In partial fulfillment of the exit requirements for the M.A.P.S. degree, each candidate has the option of choosing either an integrating project (IS 8921 & IS 8922) or a supervised ministry (IS 891) in his or her area of specialization. The supervised ministry is for those wishing to develop specific ministry skills and to reflect theologically and pastorally on this ministerial experience. The supervised ministry is developed by the student in consultation with the course instructor and the site supervisor, and normally lasts for one semester. (One unit of CPE could meet this requirement.) The placement and supervisor are determined by the course instructor in consultation with the student. Successful completion of this course requires a learning service contract, 80 hours of in-service experience, and completion of the final assessment by student, course instructor, and supervisor. This course is normally taken in the M.A.P.S. student's final year. (M.A.P.S. candidates only)

IS 8911 Continuing M.A.P.S. Supervised Ministry

1 cr

Continuing M.A.P.S. Supervised Ministry is required for the student who does not complete his/ her supervised ministry during the semester for which the student signed up for IS 891. The student must register for each semester beyond the initial semester that is necessary for a student to complete the supervised ministry. These accumulated credits do not count toward a degree nor are they figured into the student's GPA. They receive a grade of NG. (Prerequisite: IS 891, M.A.P.S. candidates only)

IS 8921 M.A.P.S. Integrating Project: Research and Design 1

In partial fulfillment of the exit requirements for the M.A.P.S. degree, each candidate has the option of choosing either an integrating project (IS 8921 & 8922) or a supervised ministry (IS 891) in his/her area of specialization. The integrating project is a creative pastoral program designed by the student in response to an actual pastoral need. It is chosen by a student with a significant amount of experience in ministry, and is developed by the student in conjunction with the course instructor. The project is completed over the course of one year, normally during the M.A.P.S. student's last full year of classes. This phase of the project, which is dedicated to research and design, is completed during the first semester of the academic year. (M.A.P.S. candidates only; this course is graded pass or fail.)

IS 8922 M.A.P.S. Integrating Project: Implementation and Writing

ı cr

In partial fulfillment of the exit requirements for the M.A.P.S. degree, each candidate has the option of choosing either an integrating project (IS 8921 & 8922) or a supervised ministry (IS 891) in his/her area of specialization. The integrating project is a creative pastoral program designed by the student in response to an actual pastoral need. It is chosen by a student with a significant amount of experience in ministry, and is developed by the student in conjunction with the course instructor. The project is completed over the course of one year, normally during the M.A.P.S. student's last full year of classes. This second phase of the project, which is dedicated to implementation and writing, is completed during the second semester of the academic year. (Prerequisite: IS 8921, M.A.P.S. candidates only; this course is graded pass or fail.)

IS 8923 Continuing MAP.S Integrating Project

1 cr

Continuing guidance for the M.A.P.S. Integrating Project is required for a student who does not complete his/her project during the semester for which the student signed up for IS 8922. The student must register for each semester beyond the initial semester that is necessary for the student to complete the Integrating Project. These accumulated credits do not count toward a degree nor are they figured into the student's GPA. They receive a grade of NG. (Prerequisite: IS 8922, M.A.P.S. candidates only; this course is graded pass or fail.)

IS 893 Integrating Practicum I

2 cr

This course is a pastoral study of the Rite of Baptism, the Rite of Marriage, and the Order of Christian Funerals. Participants will be expected to demonstrate a thorough integration of the theological, spiritual, historical, and liturgical dimensions of each rite. This will be accomplished through class presentation and discussion, personal reading and research, and a practicum for each of the rites considered. Attention will also be focused on the ability of the presider to celebrate these rites of the Church in order to lead the local community in prayer. (M.Div. candidates only)

IS 894 Integrating Practicum II

2 cr

This course is a pastoral study of the Pastoral Care of the Sick, the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults (RCIA) and presiding at the Eucharistic liturgy. Participants will be expected to demonstrate a thorough integration of the theological, spiritual, historical, and liturgical dimensions of each rite. This will be accomplished through class presentation and discussion, personal reading and research, and a practicum for each of the rites considered. The student is expected to develop presidential skills in order to celebrate these rites for the local Church community. (M.Div. candidates only)

IS 897 Clinical Pastoral Education

4 cr

IS 898 Integrating Seminar II: S.T.B.

1 cı

The seminar completes the goals of the S.T.B., conferred by the Pontifical University of St. Thomas Aquinas in Rome (Angelicum), through the comprehensive exam. In the seminar, students will prepare the topics from the study guide in advance of each session and formulate questions. Professors will assist the students in recognizing the key/principle elements within each topic. This course is pass/fail as a consequence of the S.T.B. comprehensive exam.

IS 899 M.A. Thesis

4 cr

IS 899 is intended to be taken in the student's final semester of study. The Master's thesis is a scholarly work that demonstrates the ability to do graduate-level research, to analyze primary texts, to use and evaluate scholarly literature on those texts, and to present the results of that research in a written thesis and a public oral defense. (Prerequisite: Approval of thesis topic by theology faculty; MA candidates only)

IS 8991-9 Continuing M.A. Thesis Guidance

1 cr

Continuing Thesis Guidance is provided for the student who does not complete the thesis during the semester for which the student signed up for IS 899. Continuing Thesis Guidance is required for each semester that a student wishes to use the library for thesis research or to have contact with the thesis director until the thesis is completed. These accumulated credits do not count toward a degree nor are they figured into the student's GPA. They receive an NG. (M.A. candidates only)

Latin

LA 500 Latin for Graduate Students

2 cr

A basic knowledge of Ecclesiastical Latin sufficient to be able to translate basic scriptural and liturgical texts, and philosophical and theological statements (with the help of a lexicon) and to gain an enriched understanding of language structure. (This course is graded pass or fail.)

LA 889D-899D Independent Study in Latin

3 cr

LA 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Latin

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in Latin.

Liturgy and Sacraments

LS 575 Sacramental Life of the Church

2 cr

A study of sacramental theology from the perspective of the Eucharist. This course will explore the sacraments in general through the liturgical rites and principles, and the relationship that exists among the rites in the life of the Church. Guidelines for the preparation, celebration, and practice of sacraments will also be included.

LS 605 Introduction to Sacramental Theology and the Sacrament of the Eucharist 4 cr

The course is an introduction to the seven sacraments in general, with a study of the Eucharist in particular, using Scripture, the fathers, and tradition. The introduction investigates foundational principles of sacramental theology; Christ as the Sacrament of God; the Church as Sacrament of Christ; how the sacraments connect us to Christ's mystery; and an analysis of the sacraments in terms of sign, matter, form, cause, effects, minister, and recipient. The Eucharist, source and summit of the whole Christian life, is then treated in detail: its institution by Christ; as the sacrament of Christ's presence; and as the sacrament of Christ's sacrifice.

LS 645 Sacraments of Initiation

2 cr

A study of the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults as the normative paradigm for the parish that unites sacramental catechesis, liturgical celebration, and Christian service, conversion and stages of adult faith development, initiation of children, theology of Baptism and Confirmation, ministries of the RCIA, and the catechetical use of the Lectionary.

LS 744 Holy Orders

2 cr

A scriptural and historical study of the development of the Sacrament of Holy Orders with particular reference to the role of the presbyter. Theological reflection on priestly life and ministry in the light of Vatican II and the contemporary Church. The interdependence of ecclesiastical office and lay ministry. Special reference to the spirituality of the diocesan priest. (Prerequisite: ST 635)

LS 748 Sacraments of Healing

4 cr

A scriptural and historical study of the Sacraments of Penance and Anointing of the Sick. Doctrinal, moral, canonical, and pastoral aspects of the sacraments will be examined with their application to the rites. Special emphasis will be given to developing the personal skills of the confessor in the Sacrament of Reconciliation through the practice of confessional situations. (M.Div. candidates only)

LS 889D-899D Independent Study in Liturgy and Sacraments

3 cr

LS 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Liturgy and Sacraments

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in liturgy and sacraments.

Moral Theology

MT 555 Fundamental Moral Theology

3 cr

An introduction to moral conversion as the Christian response to Revelation, i.e., Creation, Incarnation, Trinity, Sin, and Eschatology. Ethical themes such as the human person, the human act, and the good will be reviewed from a theological perspective. Attention will be given to the role of biblical morality, the moral Magisterium, natural reason, conscience, natural law, and moral norms in the process of decision-making. (M.Div. candidates only)

MT 600 Contemporary Schools of Moral Theology

2 cr

This course will examine three recent influential approaches to the Christian moral life: the biblical "virtue-based" school of Benedict Ashley, O.P. (1915-2013), the "basic human goods" school of Germain Grisez (1929-), and the "proportionalist" school of Richard McCormick, S.J. (1922-2000). By means of primary (and some secondary) texts, attention will focus on each school's background and context; understanding of Christian ethics; philosophical/theological anthropology; use of Scripture; approach to the empirical sciences; moral methodology (e.g., natural law); response to some select specific moral questions; and on the criticisms leveled against each view. Consideration will also be given to Pope John Paul II's encyclical Veritatis Splendor and how each particular school compares with the encyclical as well as how each understands Vatican Council II's call to renew moral theology.

MT 675 Foundations of the Christian Moral Life

3 cr

A systematic examination of the Christian moral life and the virtues, moral principles, and norms necessary for living that life. This course investigates Sacred Scripture, human reason, human nature, the Magisterium, sin and grace, the different methods of moral decision making, and Catholic social teaching.

MT 700 Catholic Social and Sexual Teaching

3 cr

This course examines the biblical, historical, and magisterial foundations of the Church's social and sexual teachings with particular attention to the questions of family, work, property, economic/social justice, race, religious liberty, the political community, human rights, the environment, capital punishment, war and peace, theology of the body, contraception/Natural Family Planning, masturbation, homosexuality, adultery, and fornication.

MT 750 Bioethics

3 cr

This course examines various issues in bioethics in light of the moral principles (e.g. double effect and material cooperation) and moral norms (e.g. no deliberate killing of innocent human life) of the Catholic tradition. These issues include: the nature of health and its delivery, the beginning of human life and abortion, ectopic pregnancy, embryo adoption, withdrawal of artificial nutrition and hydration, brain death, stem cell research, euthanasia/assisted suicide, genetic modification, human experimentation, artificial reproduction, organ transplants, HIV/AIDS, pastoral care to the sick, and the meaning of suffering. (Prerequisite: MT 555, M.Div. candidates only)

MT 7501 Bioethical Issues in Health Care

3 cr

This course examines various bioethical issues in health care in light of moral principles (e.g. double effect and material cooperation) and moral norms (e.g. no deliberate killing of innocent human life) in the Catholic tradition. These issues include: the nature of health, healthcare, and its delivery; the beginning of human life and the morality of abortion; the management of ectopic pregnancy; embryo adoption/rescue; genetic modification; human experimentation (e.g. embryonic and adult stem cell research); artificial reproduction (e.g. IVF-embryo transfer); condoms and the prevention of HIV/AIDS; suicide, assisted suicide, and euthanasia; the definition of death, brain death, and organ transplants; withdrawal of artificial nutrition and hydration; pastoral care to the sick and dying (e.g., Alzheimer's patients); mental health and the use of pharmacology (e.g. addiction); the role of ethics committees; and the meaning of human suffering in the healthcare setting. The course will also include some "clinical" experiences.

MT 755 Contraception and Theology

2 cr

This course identifies the anthropological, moral, ecclesial, and pastoral principles underlying the Roman Catholic Church's teaching on contraception, especially as that teaching has been expressed in Humanae Vitae and Familiaris Consortio. It will also contrast these principles with the views of those who seek to justify the use of contraception. The medical and moral issues surrounding Natural Family Planning will also be treated.

MT 889D-899D Independent Study in Moral Theology

3 cr

MT 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Moral Theology

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in moral theology.

Pastoral Ministry

PM 520 Dynamics of Parish Leadership

2 cr

A study of parish life in order to identify and apply skills for the integration of spiritual and administrative leadership in parishes. Topics include leadership styles, collaboration, conflict management, planning, and evaluation. Specific consideration will be given to policies and resources of the Michigan Catholic Conference and the Archdiocese of Detroit.

PM 612 Diaconal Liturgical Practicum

3 cr

Pastoral study of selected Christian rituals including the RCIA, communion services, paraliturgies, Viaticum and wakes. Each participant will demonstrate presiding skills and use of the Lectionary. (This course is graded pass or fail, diaconal candidates only)

PM 620 Leadership in Public Prayer

2 cr

A study of the introductions and texts of pertinent rites to be presided over by ecclesial lay ministers, and the principles and practices of presiding, ritual behavior, issues of creativity and preparation as applied to funeral rites, communion services, Liturgy of the Hours, and prayer services. Pertinent contemporary Church documents will also be studied.

PM 625 Diaconal Homiletics Practicum

3 cr

Pastoral study of the theology of communication with practical emphasis on individual ministerial communication skills. Course incorporates public speaking fundamentals, composition, and actual student performance with critical valuation. (Diaconal candidates only)

PM 700 Ministry to the Elderly

2 cr

This course explores the practice of ministry to the elderly, covering the personal, relational, theological, sacramental, and pastoral dimensions of the aging, death, and dying process. Attention is given to some ethical questions posed by modern medical technology.

PM 715 Pastoral Care of the Sick

3 cr

This course consists of a study of the spiritual, sacramental, and physical needs of the sick and terminally ill. An introduction to the Catholic rite, Pastoral Care of the Sick, practices for ministry to the sick in both institutional and home settings, and communication and helping skills are covered. Special attention is given to a variety of religious and cultural customs.

PM 720 Pastoral Care of the Family

2 cr

An examination of psychological, biblical, and magisterial foundations of family life and ministry. An exploration of contemporary family issues such as marriage enrichment, parenting, extended family dynamics, crisis intervention, and referral and cultural concerns. This course will also consider the skills and resources necessary for competent pastoral care of the family.

Spirituality

SP 533 The Fifth Gospel: Spirituality of Pilgrimage

2 cr

A spiritual pilgrimage to sites where formative events of salvation history occurred. As a spiritual pilgrimage there will be liturgical prayer, visitation to the sites, student presentations, study, periods of personal prayer and shared reflection, and discussion of contemporary events. (This course is graded pass or fail, M.Div. candidates only)

SP 620 Theology and Spirituality of Karl Rahner

2cr

This course will examine the theology and spirituality of Karl Rahner: his theological method, approach to Trinity, Christology, human person and grace, faith, revelation, Church, God as Holy Mystery, prayer, and the experience of grace in everyday life. This course will consider the importance of Rahner's thought for the lives of women and men today.

SP 660 Nature and Practice of Spiritual Direction

2 cr

An exploration of the history, principles and practice of spiritual direction. Particular emphasis is given to the director's role and dynamics of discernment. This ministry is compared and contrasted with pastoral counseling and psychotherapy.

SP 690 Human and Spiritual Adult Development

2 cr

An exploration of various theories of psychological, moral, and faith development with emphasis on the process of adult maturation. Particular attention will be given to the correlation of these theories with the process of Christian conversion.

SP 695 Union With God: The Stages of Spiritual Growth According 2 cr to Teresa of Avila

This course will cover the most important of Teresa's writings for the study of spirituality: The Book of Her Life, The Way of Perfection and The Interior Castle. In addition to focusing on Teresa's teaching on the stages of spiritual growth, the course will also attempt to relate this teaching to Pope John Paul II's recent call for parishes in the new millennium to become "schools of prayer" where "training in holiness" is given (Nove Millennio Ineunte 32, 33).

SP 705 Ignatian Apostolic Spirituality

2cr

This course explores the life of Ignatius of Loyola, his foundational writing, The Spiritual Exercises, distinctive features of Ignatian spirituality such as discernment of spirits and finding God in all things, the lives of key Jesuits who lived Ignatian spirituality within the context and challenges of their own historical period, and finally the significance of Ignatian spirituality for the 21st century.

SP 735 History of Christian Spirituality

3 cr

A study of the central authors, themes, and movements that characterize the Western Spiritual Tradition. Major spiritual classics are studied in the light of changing historical and cultural contexts in order to achieve an understanding of the principles and dynamics of spiritual growth articulated in the Christian tradition. This course provides an opportunity for reflection and personal appropriation of the wisdom of the mystical tradition for the lives of women and men today.

SP 745 Christian Discernment

2 cr

This course examines the scriptural foundations and historical development of Christian discernment, that is, the ability to recognize movements that arise from the Holy Spirit from those which do not. Special emphasis will be given to Ignatius of Loyola's experience and teaching on discernment of spirits and discernment of God's will. The course will apply principles of discernment to the discovery and following of God's will in one's personal, professional, social, and ecclesial life choices.

SP 750 Theological Foundations of Christian Spirituality

2 cr

An examination of the theological foundations that undergird Christian spirituality within the contemporary context. This study will include the theological themes such as Christology, anthropology, grace, revelation, faith, sin, and virtue. The course content and process will help students identify the operative theology that informs their spirituality.

SP 751 Theology of Christian Prayer

2 cr

A study of the theological foundations and historical roots of prayer in the Christian tradition: the Lord's prayer, apophatic/kataphatic approaches to God, centering prayer, ascetical, and mystical prayer. This course considers the relevancy of these various forms of prayer for contemporary life.

SP 760 Women and the Christian Tradition

2 cr

This course examines the images and history of women in the Church. It studies representative women's contribution to theology and spirituality, the cultures in which they lived, and the ministries in which they were engaged. It explores contemporary efforts by women to develop an approach to theology and spirituality that is based on women's experience.

SP 770 Spirituality as Autobiography

2 cr

This course explores the perspective of narrative theology. It begins by utilizing the theological method of "passing over" into the faith experience of others as a way of gaining insight into our own. Students will read the autobiographies of significant individuals to study their life stories and examine the contours of the journey of faith as it took shape in their lives.

SP 889D-899D Independent Study in Spirituality

3 cr

SP 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Spirituality

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in spirituality.

Sacred Scripture

SS 521 Method and Pentateuch

3 cr

An introduction to exegetical methods in the light of Dei Verbum 11-13, and a study of the content, historical traditions, literary structure, and theological significance of the Pentateuch for Israel and the Church. Traditional Christological interpretations of key texts will be covered and basic methods of exegesis suitable for preaching and theological research will be taught and practiced.

SS 525 Synoptics

3 cr

An introduction to the content, literary structure, theological themes, and purpose of each of the Synoptic Gospels. The course will focus on the Synoptics' Christology, soteriology, eschatology, and teaching about discipleship in order to equip students for teaching, catechesis, and theological studies. Key issues in Synoptics research will be covered, including the Synoptic Problem, the historicity of the Gospels, the quest for the historical Jesus, and the use of various critical methods. (Prerequisite: SS 521)

SS 526 Biblical Archaeology

2 cr

Introductory study to the field of Old and New Testament biblical archaeology. The relationship of archaeology to biblical studies; various archaeological periods; history of biblical archaeology; overview of significant written and non-written finds; and an archaeological introduction to the major biblical sites will be covered. The course will be enhanced by the use of audio-visual media.

SS 621 Johannine Literature

3 cr

A study of the historical setting, literary characteristics, and major theological themes of the Gospel of John, the Epistles of John, and the Book of Revelation with emphasis on the Fourth Gospel. Exegetical methods will be applied to selected passages of theological, spiritual, or pastoral significance. (Prerequisite: SS 521; recommended SS 525)

SS 623 Acts of the Apostles: An Early Witness to the Resurrection 2 cr

A close study of the Acts of the Apostles, with attention to authorship, purpose, literary characteristics, and theological themes. The course will include analysis of key texts relevant to theology, spirituality, evangelization, and pastoral ministry. (Prerequisite: SS 521; Recommended: SS 525)

SS 625 Pauline Literature

3 cr

A study of the historical setting, literary characteristics and major theological themes of the thirteen Pauline epistles. Exegetical methods will be applied to selected passages of theological, spiritual, or pastoral significance. (Prerequisite: SS 521)

SS 626 Romans

A study of Paul's letter to the Romans, situating Romans within the Pauline Corpus; focusing on Paul's methodology, principal themes contained in the letter, and purpose of the letter; and studying selected texts.

SS 635 Book of Revelation: Triumph of God

2 cr

2 cr

An introduction to the Book of Revelation with attention to genre, structure, historical setting, symbolism, characters, literary features, and theological themes. The course will examine some of the ways Revelation has been interpreted and consider its significance for Christian faith, liturgy, and life.

SS 727 Prophets

3 cr

A study of the major and minor prophets of Israel, including their historical context, life, and message. The Prophets will be studied in historical sequence within the context of their times and from each prophet's theological perspective. The course will include practice in exegesis of prophetic texts and application that is oriented to preaching, catechesis, and theology. (Prerequisite: SS 521)

SS 737 Psalms and Wisdom Literature

3 cr

A literary and theological study of the Psalms and Wisdom Literature of the Old Testament. The course will examine the literary and poetic features of the texts, their meaning for Israel and the Christological implications, as well as the meaning of the Psalms and Christian prayer and the Wisdom Books for pastoral ministry. (Prerequisite: SS 521)

SS 889D-899D Independent Study in Scripture

3 cr

SS 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Scripture

2-3 cr

One time elective offerings in Scripture.

Systematic Theology

ST 500 Theological Methodology

2 cr

An introduction to Christian theology: its history, nature, and sources, as well as an analysis of a variety of theological methods, past and present. Special attention will be paid to the effect on theological methodology of significant shifts in philosophy in the course of history, issues of fundamental theology that have methodological relevance such as the relation between faith and reason, and the courses of theology. A research paper is required for this course. (Co-requisite IS 505)

ST 501 Theology of Mission and Ministry

2 cr

The scriptural and theological foundations of the mission and ministry of the Church. Special attention is given to the topics of Church and Kingdom of God, apostolic ministry, office, charism, and priesthood of the laity. Current issues of collaboration in ministry by clergy and laity, role of women, pluralism, religion in the marketplace, and ecumenical development.

ST 530 Fundamental Theology

3 cr

An historical and systematic study of the definitive self-communication of God in Christ: the nature and method of theology; the qualities, parts, and grounds of revelation; the transmission and development of revelation in the Church (Tradition, Scripture, and its canonicity, inspiration, and inerrancy); receptivity toward revelation; and the credibility of revelation (reliability of the Gospels, immanent, and external signs). (Co-requisite IS 505, M.DIV. candidates only)

ST 535 Christian Anthropology

3 cr

A study of the biblical foundations and theological development of the Christian understanding of God's relationship to humankind. This objective will be accomplished by means of an investigation of the theology of grace, as it illuminates an understanding of realities such as creation, original sin, salvation/redemption, the relationship between Christ and the human person (i.e. spousal), death, resurrection, and eschatology (heaven, hell, purgatory). (M.DIV. candidates only)

ST 5351 Human Person and Grace

2 cr

A study of the biblical foundations and theological development of the Christian understanding of God's relationship to humankind. This objective will be accomplished by means of an investigation of the theology of grace as it illuminates an understanding of realities such as creation, original sin, salvation/redemption, death, resurrection, and eschatology (heaven, hell, purgatory).

ST 600 The Church Fathers to Nicaea

2 cr

This course, part one of a sequence, introduces the principal Church Fathers and literary works of the early Church until the beginning of the Arian crisis in correlation with chief issues of doctrine and Christian identity during the period. Students will study portions of selected major texts, and many shorter texts in their entirety.

ST 605 The Church Fathers from Nicaea

3 cr

This course, part two of a sequence, introduces the principal Church Fathers and literary works of the early Church from the Arian crisis to the Third Council of Constantinople (680-681) in correlation with chief issues of doctrine and Christian identity during the period. Students will study portions of selected major texts, and many shorter texts in their entirety.

ST 630 Theology of Trinity

3 cr

This course examines the self-revelation of God as One and Triune as found in Sacred Scripture, patristic and scholastic theology, and the Magisterium. The Trinity, as the central mystery of the faith and source of spirituality, will be explored further in light of contemporary theology. (M.Div. and S.T.B. candidates only)

ST 635 Ecclesiology

3 cr

Historical analysis and study of the origin, nature, mission, structure, and offices of the Church; Relationship of the Church to the Kingdom of God; Development of ecclesiology since Vatican I and Vatican II with emphasis on issues of authority, infallibility, unity, and pluralism; and Mariology; Insights gained from contemporary ecumenical dialogues concerning Church reunion. (M.Div. candidates only)

ST 6351 Nature and Mission of the Church

2 cr

A systematic study of the foundation, nature, and fundamental structure of the Church in light of its biblical-historical origins and contemporary self-understanding as envisioned in Vatican II's Dogmatic Constitution on the Church. In light of this study, contemporary issues will be treated such as Church order, the teaching office (Magisterium), ordained and non-ordained ministries, ecumenical relations, papal infallibility, and the Church in society and the world.

ST 641 Augustine, the Theologian

2 cr

A study of the writings and thought of Augustine of Hippo, with special attention to his major works: The Confessions, On the Trinity, and The City of God. Topics will include Augustine's use of Neoplatonic philosophy and his doctrines of creation, grace, predestination, the Trinity, Scriptural interpretation, Christology, and Christian worship. These will be treated against a backdrop of literary considerations of his major works.

ST 650 Trinitarian and Christological Foundations of Christian Faith 3 cr

Examination of the Judeo-Christian tradition as found in Scripture and Christian history concerning the self-revelation of God in Jesus Christ. Particular emphasis will be given to the Triune God thus revealed and to the identity and saving mission of Jesus Christ as the central mysteries of the Christian faith. The course will conclude with an introduction to the contemporary discussions of these doctrines. (Prerequisite: SS 525)

ST 730 Christology

3 cr

A study of the identity and saving work of Jesus Christ: Jesus in the Scriptures; the development in the Patristic age of the doctrines of Incarnation and Redemption; scholastic syntheses; contemporary reformulations; and Christ in relation to other religions. This course also explores the role of the Holy Spirit and the place of the Virgin Mary in the mystery of Christ. (Prerequisites: ST 530; ST 630) (Highly recommended: SS 525) (M.Div. candidates only)

ST 734 Mary, The Mother of God

2 cr

A study of the Virgin Mary, Mother of God, in the Scriptures and Tradition of the Church; what the Church has professed about Mary in theology, history, liturgy, and spirituality; and consideration of ecumenical perspectives.

ST 889D-899D

Independent Study in Systematic Theology

3 cr

ST 8891-8999 Elective Courses in Systematic Theology

One time elective offerings in systematic theology.

STL 865 Theology of the New Evangelization (NE 865)

3 cr

2-3 cr

This course reviews the major magisterial documents and theological commentary concerning the New Evangelization. It considers some of the main theological themes that are of particular relevance to the New Evangelization with a special focus on the content of the message.

STL 868 Evangelization and Spirituality (NE 868)

3 cr

3 cr

This course examines the essential link between evangelization and life in the Holy Spirit as presented in the New Testament, especially in the Acts of the Apostles as well as in Catholic Tradition and in magisterial documents. The course studies the work of the Spirit in both its sanctifying and charismatic dimensions, and discusses how this understanding is to be applied to the New Evangelization today.

STL 871 Cultural Milieu of the New Evangelization (NE 871)

This course examines the theological, philosophical and socio-cultural presuppositions of the present-day cultural context within which promoters of the New Evangelization must work. It also address the need to develop a Catholic theology of culture, as well as a theology of the laity, along with an understanding of the Church's missionary mandate that is informed by a vision of integral evangelization.

STL 872 Models of Evangelization: Historical and Contemporary (NE 872) 3 cr

This course will select from the history of evangelization various models that have been successfully utilized and analyze their components. The course will also examine the variety of contemporary models and methods of evangelization that are being utilized in the contemporary Church.

STL 875 Vatican Council II: History, Theology and Spirituality (NE 875) 3 cr

This course explores the historical, ecclesiastical, and theological background of the Council. It examines the preparations for the Council, the preliminary drafts composed of council documents, and the major events in the four sessions of the Council. Finally, the course discusses the theological and ecclesial impact of the Council and its implications for contemporary spirituality.

STL 876 Evangelization Practicum (NE 876)

2 cr

Each S.T.L. student must complete a two credit practicum in evangelization. This involves personal involvement in some significant evangelization project or program. Students who have not had this kind of experience must choose an evangelization project and become personally involved. Students who have had previous or continuing experience in evangelization will be exempt from undertaking a new project. All students will write a substantial paper on their personal evangelization involvement wherein they utilize the theological, spiritual, and pastoral foundational principles they have studied. This practicum should be taken towards the end of the S.T.L. program so students may draw on the content of the other courses as a basis for their analysis.

STL 877 Devotional Practices and the New Evangelization

3 cr

The course focuses on the relationship between Catholic devotional practices and the New Evangelization with an emphasis on understanding this relationship from sociological, anthropological, and theological perspectives. Historical analysis of what happened before and after Vatican II in terms of Catholic devotional practices and Catholic liturgy will occupy a central place in the course. Moreover, a comprehensive reading and analysis (sociological as well as theological) of the Directory on Popular Piety and the Liturgy (2001) will be undertaken in order to ground class discussions about the future of Catholic devotional life and the role of the New Evangelization in promoting that future.

STL 902 Hermeneutics and Exegesis: Key Issues for the New Evangelization 3 cr

This course will study the Constitution Dei Verbum in order to ascertain what theological principles, explicit and implicit, ground the task of interpreting Sacred Scripture. After surveying various approaches to biblical interpretation, both ancient and modern, the course will examine questions related to the literal and spiritual senses, the historical-critical and literary methods, and the philosophical underpinnings of hermeneutics. The challenges of biblical interpretation, the nature of an authentically Catholic approach to interpretation, and the relevance of sound biblical interpretation to the New Evangelization will be particularly emphasized. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 904 Theology of the Cross

2 cr

Confronted with the problem of suffering, especially unjust suffering, this course studies and evaluates the answers given by the Old Testament as well as ancient and modern philosophies before opening the students to the mystery of Christ's redemptive sufferings in which believers participate. A shift from a philosophy of natures built upon natures to one built upon freedom is necessary to lay the foundation for a theological synthesis comprehending New Testament witness to Christ as well as the central dogmas of the Church's tradition.

STL 905 Twentieth-Century Thomisms

2 cr

This course will study a shift in theological method that happened after Vatican II when scholars of the school of transcendental Thomism responded to the work of conceptualist Thomists. We will study the philosophical foundations of each school of thought and their major theological treatises as well as the consequence of their positions on morality and spirituality. The course concludes with a synthesis of both theological methods.

STL 908 The Family: School of Evangelization

3 cr

This course examines the natural and sacramental foundations of marriage and family life, that is, of the "domestic church", as both an object of and vehicle for the New Evangelization. Students will assess key ecclesiastical documents on the family (including papal encyclicals, conciliar teaching, and dicasterial instructions) and will explore methods for bringing the strength of such teachings more effectively to bear in the modern world. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 910 Christology in the First Millennium

2 cr

Examines doctrinal foundations of Christology with an emphasis on issues related to evangelization in diverse cultural contexts. Examines select Scriptural, Patristic, conciliar, and pontifical sources, and reviews leading theological writings of the first millennium. (STL candidates only)

STL 911 Christology in the Second Millennium

2 cr

Examines doctrinal foundations of Christology with an emphasis on issues related to evangelization in diverse cultural contexts. Examines select conciliar and pontifical sources, and reviews leading theological writings of the second millennium in their own right and with a view toward suggesting applications in the third. (STL candidates only; prerequisite STL 910)

STL 916 Systematic Issues in Revelation

2 cr

This course begins by addressing the fundamental questions: What is revelation, and how is it communicated? Students will study the Catholic understanding of divine revelation as the Father's self-communication through his Word in the Spirit, along with related topics such as the interrelationship of God's deeds and words, the authority of Scripture and Tradition, the development of doctrine, the role of theologians in the Church, and the Magisterium. Questions concerning the nature of truth, the task of interpretation, divine predication in language, and the relationship between revelation and liturgy will be explored. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 918 The Structure of Particular Churches

2 cr

The documents of the Second Vatican Council employ the term "particular churches" to refer to an arch/diocese, a ritual church sui iuris, and an indigenous church in a missionary setting. This course examines the significance of this terminology and focuses on the arch/diocesan particular church as it, in turn, relates to the universal Church in which it exists (c. 368) and to the parishes into which it must be divided (c. 374 § 1). Students will investigate the canonical structures of the particular church by examining relevant texts of the First and Second Vatican Councils, the 1917 and 1983 Codes of Canon Law, and the Code of Canons of the Eastern Churches. Brief attention is also given to some intermediate governing structures, especially the Synod of Bishops, National Episcopal Conferences, and regional deaneries or vicariates. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 919 Marriage Preparation

2 cr

This course instructs the student in the process of how to prepare couples for the sacrament of marriage understood as a means of the new evangelization. It utilizes social science data and social commentary that provide a portrait of couples presenting themselves for marriage. Particular emphasis will be on marriage as a vocation and will include close study of Church documents such as Familiaris consortio, and "Preparation for the Sacrament of Marriage". Students will evaluate various marriage preparation programs as effective vehicles for dealing with some of the problems of marriage preparation (e.g., past promiscuity, cohabitation, contraception) and for evangelizing the couples concerning their vocation (e.g., sacramentality of marriage and couples' prayer). (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 920 The Holy Spirit in the New Testament

2 cr

This course examines the work and Person of the Holy Spirit as depicted in the diverse writings of the New Testament and reflects on them in the light of Christian experience and contemporary life to discover the implications for the New Evangelization. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 922 Evangelization in the New Testament

2 cr

This course examines key themes and texts related to evangelization in the Synoptics, the Gospel of John, Acts, the Pauline corpus, the Catholic letters, and the Book Revelation. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 924 Social Teachings of the Church

2 cr

This course examines the biblical, historical, and magisterial foundations of the Church's social teaching with particular attention to such areas as the family, work, property, social justice, race relations, religious liberty, the political community, human rights, the environment, capital punishment, and war and peace. It relates this teaching to the Church's mission of evangelization. (S.T.L. candidates only)

STL 925 The Synod of Bishops

2 cr

This course examines the conciliar roots of the Synod of Bishops, its present canonical structure, and the methodologies employed by synodal Fathers in confronting various pastoral issues with special relevance for the New Evangelization.

STL 926 Theology of the Laity

2 cr

This course studies the significant development in theology in the last century of the elaboration of a positive theology of the laity.
